Ortigia, renovated and furnished apartment ready to be used

In the wonderful setting of Ortigia, a step away from the Temple of Apollo and all the main places of interest in the Island, we offer a finely renovated and furnished apartment ready to be used. The property, located on the third floor of a building in the heart of the historic Via Resalibera, consists of a very bright entrance, living room with a comfortable sofa bed, kitchen, bedroom with dressing room and bathroom with shower. Furniture and furnishings, chosen with care and in detail, are sold together with the property in the sale price. The strategic location and the recent renovation make this apartment ideal as a personal home or as a holiday home. To be seen!
